This exquisite property, designed by renowned architect William Shillingford, redefines luxury living in one of New South Wales' most breathtaking settings.

Nestled above the serene Hawkesbury River, 818 offers an unparalleled blend of human ingenuity and natural beauty. The property manifests elegant designs featuring high ceilings, scabbled granite floors, and expansive windows that flood the living spaces with natural light. Each of the four bedrooms, including two lavish master suites, is complemented by marble ensuites and bespoke walk-in robes, ensuring the utmost comfort and privacy.

The heart of the home is the gourmet kitchen, a haven for culinary enthusiasts, showcasing Carrara marble
